Lenoir, North Carolina

THIS OUR BOOK...

BY AND FOR THE STUDENTS OF

Another year at L. H. S. has flown by, yet within these pages are contained all the pleasant memories that will make this year an unforgettable one. By means of this annual, your 1960 BEARCAT, in years to come, you will be able to recall all the old familiar faces, events, and places that you now know so well. We have tried to present both the highlights and the common, everyday happenings at L. H. S. in a way that will be meaningful to every student. We have attempted to give in one form or another, a glimpse into every phase of daily routine—from freshmen to seniors, and from football games to the Junior-Senior Prom.

THE PLACE WE CALL OURS

---AND THIS OUR SCHOOL LIFE

Um-m! What's for chow?

I could stay out of classes forever on this kind of doy!

With new tape recarders to aid in pronunciation, students have a sudden flair for Spanish.

AT LENOIR HIGH

Buenos . . . uh . . . buenos días . . . señor?

Ah — one — ond — two — and — three — ond . . .

Yes, I've been thinking about applying there . . .

"Hail, Alma Mater . . ."

Traditional, and yet new....

Great scenery around L. H. S., huh?

With always enough time for the less important things . . .

Friendly and memorable

Cook Stadium, soon to be filled with every kind of enthusiastic fan . . .

Mrs. Gertrude Whitehead

In Dedication...

Her ideal is the development of students through education. Through her untiring efforts as algebra and geometry teacher, she has given Lenoir High School a reputation of one of the best math departments among the high schools in the state. To those of us who have had the privilege of learning under her, she symbolizes the meaning of the word study. No doubt, as we look back in years to come, we shall say of her that she was one of the main influences in the building of our characters.

It is with these thoughts in mind, that we, the student body, express to you, Mrs. Whitehead, our heartfelt gratitude for your perseverance and unflinching leadership.

Elina Mavrea

In Tribute....

We, the students of L.H.S., would like to pay our tribute to you, Elina Mavrea. We are very proud to have had you with us this year as our foreign exchange student from Greece. You have been an inspiration to us all through your friendliness and your sincere desire to learn. During your stay here, you have won the admiration of both students and faculty, and we hope your visit has been as pleasant for you as it has for us. We know for certain that we shall never forget our charming ambassador from Athens.

COMPETENT

is the word for our administration . . .

SCHOOL BOARD

All the schools of Lenoir, including L. H. S., are the responsibilities of the six men and one woman who are the active members of the school board. These prominent citizens give freely of their time in order to plan and carry out the endless tasks of securing teachers, overseeing needed repairs, and countless other tasks which must be performed to keep our schools functioning properly.

The school board is very fortunate to have a leader so capable as Dr. Donald Lackey.

These are our school board members, who are constantly working for better schools. They are Mrs. B. S. Trautman, Dr. Donald W. Lackey, Mr. J. B. Hustan, Jr., Mr. J. G. Hagaman, Mr. G. T. Crowell, Mr. C. E. Beach, Mr. Charles E. Dabbin, and Mr. T. Glen Miller, Jr.

SUPERINTENDENT

A face that has become most familiar to all of us is that of our superintendent, Mr. Hagaman. During his nine years of devoted duty, he has displayed competent and efficient work. Mr. Hagaman is noted for his understanding and patience with the problems of both students and faculty, and his willingness to shoulder the responsibilities that are a part of keeping the schools in Lenoir in smooth running order. His capable guiding of our schools along the paths of education has proved him to be an able counselor and administrator.

Mr. Hagaman and Mrs. Lingle, his secretary, are always busy taking care of the needs of our schools.

PRINCIPAL

Lenoir High School is proud to have the capable guidance and superior leadership of our principal, Mr. Henry McFadyen. By his hard labor, he has helped our school maintain its traditional high standards, and he is always striving for its improvement. His authentic interest in each of us as individuals causes him to hold not only our respect but our admiration as well. Indeed we are fortunate to have the privilege of placing our school in the hands of this man.

Mr. McFadyen seems to be continually giving dictation like this to his secretary, Mrs. Justice.

LUNCHROOM STAFF

Mrs. C. D. Honeycutt, Mory Shatley, and Mabel Bowers form the dependable staff that performs a very vital and essential part of our school day, providing us with hot, nourishing meals.

CUSTODIANS

Stanley Bowers and Raymond Ferguson are the hard-working, little-appreciated people who toil to keep our school in good condition and our days at school more comfortable.

C L A S S E S

These congenial girls graciously consented to help Mrs. Justice in the office during their study periods.

THE CLASS

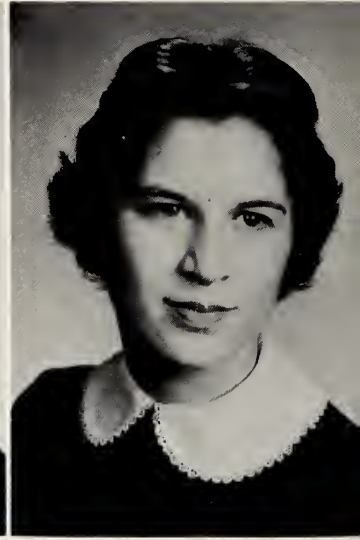

HARPER BEALL
President

MIKE BROOCH
Vice-President

SHEILA GIBBS
Secretary

MARY SUE PROFFIT
Treasurer

First row: Peyton Rice, Mary Sue Proffit, and Millie Peorce.
Second row: Bruce Drum, Mrs. Jorrott, adviser; Mike Brooch, Tom Walker, Clayton Watson, Gray Lee Steele, Gary Huffstetler, and Harper Beall. From these the seniors get their advice?

After enjoying four years of life at L. H. S., the mature seniors are now prepared to further their ambitions in other worlds. However, they will carry with them many wonderful memories of their experiences at L. H. S.

OF 1960

See, I know what I'm talking about!

Time for that infamous march into assembly again!

Like—uh—hella, baby!

Debbie Allred and Stevie Stevens, mascats.

Somehow a junior marshal managed to warm his way into the party for senior superlatives, but then, isn't it typical?!

The hard-working juniors are the dependable people cheerfully working in the concession stand and raising money for the junior class. They are becoming the responsible students who will be next year's leaders. Their busy year includes selecting their class rings and the highlight—the Junior-Senior prom.

This year's work chairman, heading all the activity connected with the junior class, are Richard McFadyen and Judy Bobbit.

Working hard to have a good Junior-Senior as the result of a successful concession stand are the junior sponsors, Mrs. Boyd Smith, Mrs. James Lipe, and Mrs. W. K. McGowan.

Enjoying for the first time the privileges of upper classmen, the sophomores take an active part in the school curriculum and learn to buckle down to the serious study expected

Miss Haley, capable sponsor of the saphamare class, never fails to take time out from a Latin paragraph to help a student.

And you thought your spine wouldn't bend!

What an unnecessary evil!

Well, I like the round ones!

Carefree and thoughtful....

Stop laughing and start playing.

You mean that's me?

Learn all that in three minutes? Out of the question!

Gee, Mrs. Whitehead, another test?

If we have to stand in line much longer, we'll die before we ever get to the food.

I told you it wasn't right!

But underneath it...

Wonder what Shakespeare would think if he could only see this?

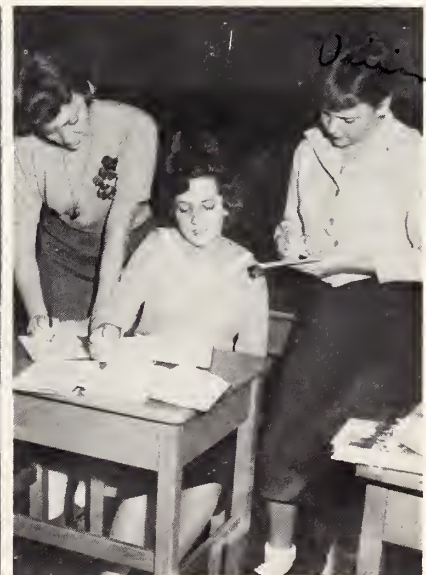

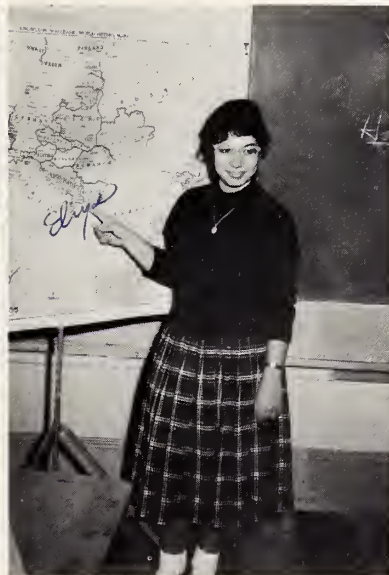

"And then the Big Bad Wolf said to little Red Riding Hood . . ."

Mechanical drawing proves to be a problem when one can't draw a straight line, doesn't it, Neil?

This may be Greek to you, but it's home to me!

After all, three brains are better than one.

We play, we work, we worry

What has Zorro got that I haven't got?

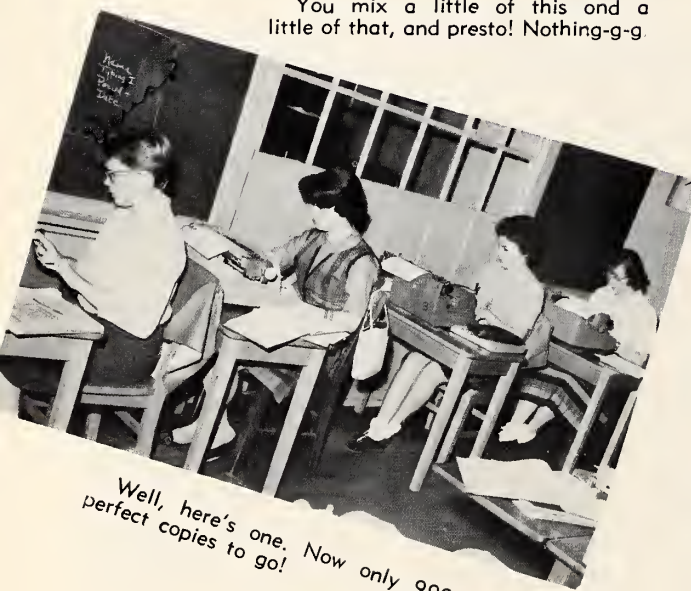

And one for you, and two for me, and one for you, and three for me . . .

You mix a little of this and a little of that, and presto! Nothing-g-g.

"Standing on the corner . . ."

Well, here's one. Now only 999 perfect copies to go!

It's no surprise that I can't do geometry. After all, I never could do more than one thing at a time . . .!

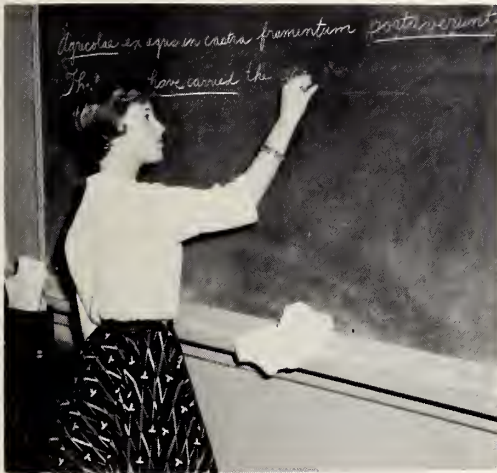

through four years of learning.

You all know that one, don't you?

I think I hear them coming. Let's go!

No wonder it's a dead language!

I take it back, Mom. It isn't as easy as it looks.

Is that hot chocolate hot or is it hot?!

Toughie woo! I found it first!

O R G A N I Z A T I O N S

The student council members listen attentively to their president, Gary Walker.

"And what do you do for entertainment on dates?"

COMPREHENSIVE

is the word for our organizations . .

Any person, on seeing the small, crowded annual room, would never dream that from the scattered papers, envelopes, and harassed individuals originates the book of memories that you are now thumbing through—your 1960 BEARCAT.

Hard at work are the "co-captains" of the BEARCAT team: Angela Whitt, associate editor; and Pat Jordan, editor.

1960

These loyal workers who head the annual staff put forth their tireless efforts to get the BEARCAT ready for publication.

With the business manager's words, "Our goal is to sell 420 annuals this year," the subscription drive was begun. Through prodding students and persuasively selling ads to businessmen, they happily achieved this high standard.

BEARCAT takes maney,
Maney means ads,
Ads mean better BEARCATS.
Trying to salve this vicious circle are Richard McFadyen, assistant business manager; and Brenda Cale, business manager.

BEARCAT

"Pay $4.25 now, or $2.25 now and $2.00 in March." Brenda Cale and Richard McFadyen gladly take subscription fees from Rebecca Youngblaad and Donald McGee.

There! I hope it comes out right now.
Editor: Millie Pearce. Associate Editor: Patsy Mitchum.

We've got to add those figures sometime!
Business Manager: Mortha Jones. Assistant Business Manager: Evanno Hollifield.

Not a single issue of the MOUNTAINEER could have been published without the wise and greatly appreciated counsel of Mr. Hayes, a new but already well-known face on our faculty.

Flavoring our school life with monthly copies of the school newspaper, the MOUNTAINEER contains news of elections, editorials, student polls, sports, cartoons, feature stories by different members of the MOUNTAINEER staff, and a delightful "Seen Around . . ." section.

MOUNTAINEER

Here are the students who faithfully and regularly publish the MOUNTAINEER. First row: Sarah Barlowe, Carol Cook, Patsy Mitchum, Sylvia Smith, and Mr. Hayes. Second row: Judy Suddreth, Martha Janes, Millie Pearce, Clydean Duncan, and Ronda Oliver. Third row: Syble Turmire, Evanna Hollifield, Libby Sheppard, Muriel Miller, Linda Hedrick, and Steve Triplett. Fourth row: Judy Andrews, Sheila Meltan, Carolyn Taylor, Donald McGee, Johnny Carlisle, and Johnny Smith. Fifth row: Charlie McLean, Fred Laffoon, Larry Carlton, Tom Walker, and Carrall Setzer.

For that price, they better be good!

You know there is such a thing as a deadline!

Not many schools have assembly programs as unusual as we do, but then, not many have cheerleaders like these!

STUDENT COUNCIL .

Trying their best to plan effective assembly programs, striving to set good examples, working hard on school projects, keeping the Honor Board posted with outstanding students, building better school relations—these and many more are the tasks our student council members perform with pride and perfection.

The hard-working officers of the Student Council this year are Gary Walker, president; Rebecca Youngblood, vice-president; Susan Duncan, secretary; and Bill Angley, treasurer.

One at a time, please!

Striving always to be worthy of their membership in the National Honor Society are seated: Pat Jordan, Phil Howell, Joie Townsend, Brenda Cole, and Martha Jones. Standing, first row: Millie Pearce, Sharon Lovins, Elina Mavrea, Martha Walsh, and Anne Beach. Second row: Gary Walker, Katherine Menefee, Rebecca Youngblood, Sandra Clay, Richard Dabbin, and Bruce Church.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

What an exciting moment when Joie Townsend starts to tap Millie Pearce!

In an impressive ceremony, students are tapped into the Lenoir Chapter of the National Honor Society, and pledge to "hold high the torch" by practicing the four cardinal points of the society—character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Membership in this society is the highest honor a student at L. H. S. may obtain.

Martha

Patty

In an impressive, candlelight ceremony, new members in white robes pledge to uphold the well-known traditions of the Honor Society. Members who were initiated in their junior year are Brenda Cale, Jaie Townsend, Martha Janes, Phillip Hawell, and Pot Jardon.

This year, the Lenair chapter of the National Honor Society was appointed to edit the state paper, the TORCHLIGHT. Working with the editor, Phil Hawell, are Brenda Cale and Mrs. Whitehead.

Meetings are really such fun, even though you-know-who is chaperoning!

LATIN CLUB

Guided by the J. C. L. torch, club members struggle through the pitfalls of winter to the brighter days of Latin Week and other activities.

Miss Haley is loved and respected for her interest in individuals as well as for her capable leadership of one of the most active clubs in school.

What's this, the Ku Klux Klan?

The outstanding members of the Latin Club were chosen to be the following officers: Sally Bogley, empress; Bannie Forthing, flomen; Rebecco Beach, dictotar; Sandro Ennis, scriba; Buddy Templeton, emparer; and Brenda Vagt, qucestor.

A slove's work is never dane!

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

The officers of the F. B. L. A. who endorse the bulletin board in the background are: Pot Hodges, president; Martha Jones, vice-president; Mary Ann Greene, corresponding secretary; Sheila Gibbs, secretary; Libby Sheppard, treasurer; and Carol Cook, reporter.

"Today we learn; tomorrow we lead."

This could be a fitting slogan for the F. B. L. A. With their selective background, members should have no trouble reaching the heights of their individual ambitions.

Hey! Stop looking over my shoulder! You're making me nervous-s-s.

These are the students, ranging from cheerleaders to full-backs, who make up this year's Monogram Club. First row: Martha Jones, Judy Jarvis, Sylvia Ashley, Evanna Hollifield, Carolyn Cook, Alice Safriet, Reba Wilson, Sybil Turnmire, Mary Sue Proffitt, and Sheila Gibbs. Second row: Mary Evelyn Thompson, Rebecca Youngblood, Sarah McGee, Sheila Melton, Robert Robbins, Freddie Dean Wilson, David Huffstetler, and Larry

MONOGRAM CLUB

Good news, boys! We finally made it!

With members ranging from husky 240-pounders to slim, spirited cheerleaders, the Monogram Club presents a wide assortment of personalities. Their aim is to promote better sportsmanship in Lenoir High and between Lenoir and other schools in our conference.

Looking after a few of the many trophies won by L. H. S. are this year's Monogram Club officers: Gary Huffstetler, president; Gray Lee Steele, vice-president; Mary Evelyn Thompson, secretary; and Terry Melton, treasurer.

As they prepare delicious dinners, preserve foods, and diligently sew their own wardrobes, these girls, carrying on the tradition of Southern hospitality, are striving to become the successful homemakers of the future.

The capable officers of the F. H. A. are first row: Libby Stroupe, treasurer; Linda Pearson, reporter; and Sarah Church, president. Second row: Judy Goble, parliamentarian; Mary Ann Heffner, song leader; Nancy Suddreth, secretary; Judy Parsons, vice-president; and Kaye Greer, committee chairman.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Wow! They really get things done in home ec., don't they?

SPANISH

The vital, energetic hub of all the Spanish Club's activities is easily recognized by his over-sized sombrero, Mr. Manuel Lorenzo.

With a cheery buenos días, members of the Spanish Club start their work each day as they learn to converse with the Latin-American people. Thanks to this club, we have the beautiful Sno-Ball dance each year.

CLUB

Tom's hand

Everyone agreed that this year's Sno-Boll was one of the best ever.

Leaders of the Spanish Club are the following four seniors chosen as officers: Tom Walker, treasurer; Anne Beach, president; Sarah Link Kirby, secretary; and Ann Shorpe, vice-president.

Miss Joie Townsend measured up to everyone's expectations of a pretty Sno-Boll Queen.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Officers of the Future Teachers of America are Sarah Link Kirby, president; Jeanette Danieleley, vice-president; Betty Hennessee, secretary Brenda Cole, treasurer; Libby Sheppard, reporter; and Mr. Lorenzo, adviser.

Sorry, teach, but I don't believe a word of it!

Not only to guide, but to inspire—to mold, to uphold. Upon these future teachers of America lies the responsibility of shaping young lives—physically, mentally, morally.

Sulfuric acid, smile, bicarbonate of soda, smile, borax . . . Oh, what's the use? First row: Sandra Whitener, Rose Marie Walsh, Sandra Ennis, Brenda Cole, Joie Townsend, Rebecca Youngblood, Susan Duncan, Frances Kovachi, Carol Cook, Lucille Swanson, Judy Goble, Sharon Lovins, Patsy Mitchum, Rebecca Kendrick, Anne Beach, Ann Sharpe, Sandra Clay, Clara Ann Stimson, Pat Cook, Pat Jordan, and Mary Evelyn Thompson. Second row: Betty Hennessee, Jeanette Danieleley, Roy Barlow, Katherine Menefee, Muriel Miller, Angela Whitt, Judy Barlow, Martha Jones, Vicki Ervin, Janice Armfield, Alex Holden, Phillip Howell, Clayton Watson, Ronda Oliver, Bill

Bi-Phy-Chem Club

Members of the Bi-Phy-Chem Club hope to some day help decrease the shortage of scientists in America, even if most of them will serve in home or offices rather than in experimental laboratories.

Careful now! Blow it out; don't breathe it in!

They must have just flunked a chemistry test! Officers of the Bi-Phy-Chem Club are Phil Howell, president; Lorry Greene, vice-president; Mike Spainhour, secretary; and Bill Eubanks, reporter.

Producers for the Masquers are Linda Hedrick, treasurer; and Vicki Ervin, secretary. Directors are Carol Caak, president; and Bruce Church, vice-president.

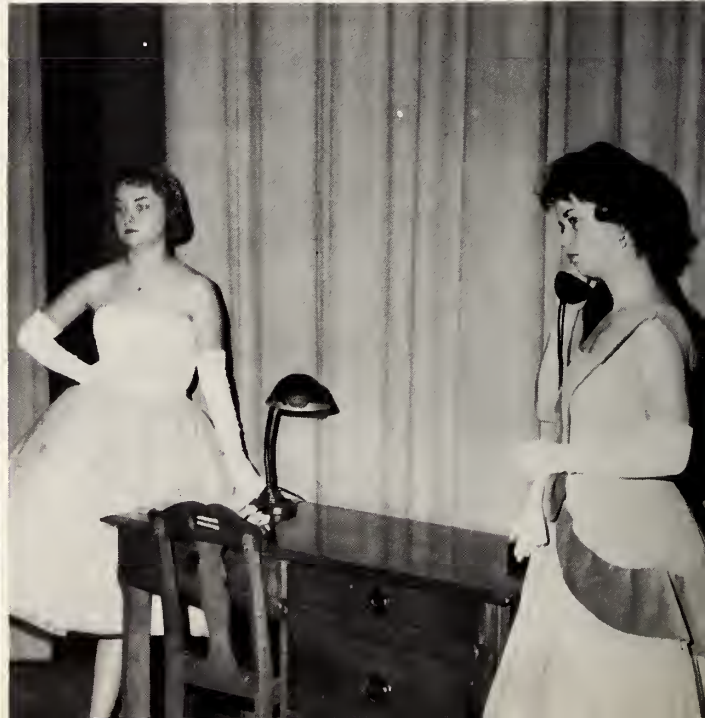

Members of the Masquers Club are the actors, actresses, stage hands, and directors of the future. With the help of Mrs. Cobb, their adviser, these students learn small mannerisms and habits of speech that make good playmakers. Their activities are climaxed yearly by the senior class play.

What have we here?

THE 1960

"So you can't go to the dance, eh?"

MASQUERS CLUB

Haw about a third eyebrow for you?

In one of several one-act plays presented in assembly, this prodigol san didn't quite moke it hame.

A quintet gathered around the piano for some "warm-up" harmonizing.

Take a group of melodious feminine tra-la-la's, add a number of resinous male voices, mix well with the apt direction of Miss Mauk, and develop thoroughly with hours of practice, and you have the recipe for the Lenoir High School Glee Club, the vocal organization of our school.

First row: Marcia Whitener, Jo Ann Andrews, Sue Davis, Marilyn Abernathy, and Sarah Barlowe.
Second row: Sheila Gibbs, Judy Gragg, Janice Harrison, Libby Smith, Rose Mary Livingston, and Kaye Greer.
Third row: Sheila Melton, Celia McDade, Evelyn Bean, Ruth Adams, Charlotte Foster, and Mary Jo Beach.
Fourth row: Freddie Dean Wilson, Ralph Ostrom, Tye Bishop, Jim Moser, and Robert Robbins.
Fifth row: Bruce Parsons, Herman Polly, and Luke Watson.

The officers of the Glee Club are Libby Smith, robe mistress; Sheila Gibbs, president; Mary Jo Beach, librarian; Sylvia Ashley, vice-president; Sheila Melton, assistant secretary; Doug Oakley, treasurer; and Tye Bishop, secretary.

Miss Mauk pauses to instruct Sarah Barlowe, student accompanist of the Glee Club.

THE LENOIR HIGH

Sixty musicians compose this year's edition of "Lenoir's Own." First row: George Hamby, Carol Moore, Margaret Gentry, Linda Nelson, Victor Pope, and Janice Armfield. Second row: Jerry Wilson, Sherlene Cooper, Seldon Gladden, Billie Jo Arney, Carolyn Herman, and Eileen Dodge. Third row: Judy Gagg, Nancy Moore,

SCHOOL BAND - 1960

First row: Lucille Swanson, Pat Hodges, Bruce Craig, Ned Reece, Orin Whitener, and Bruce Parsons. Second row: Libby Stroupe, Brenda Triplette, Ann Spradlin, Phyllis Lutz, Rose Marie Walsh, and Katherine Meneffee. Third row: Roger Austin, Sue Stroupe, Mary Frances Ludwig, Betty Clarke, Annette Braswell, and Karetccs

Watson. Fourth row: Arthur McGimsey, David Stimson, Jim Brooks, Eddie Runnion, Tommy Carlton, and Bobby Curtis. Fifth row: Darrel Lefevers, Bill Safford, Randy Melton, Bob Palmer, Charles Spicer, Doug Holman, and Mr. Hirsch.

The photographer caught the band off guard after one of its outstanding football game performances.

Captain F. WILSON
Fullback

The brains behind the brawn are Coach Jack Pennell, Head Coach Bruce Jaynes, and Coach Charles Hope.

Out of the way, boys; I'm moving!

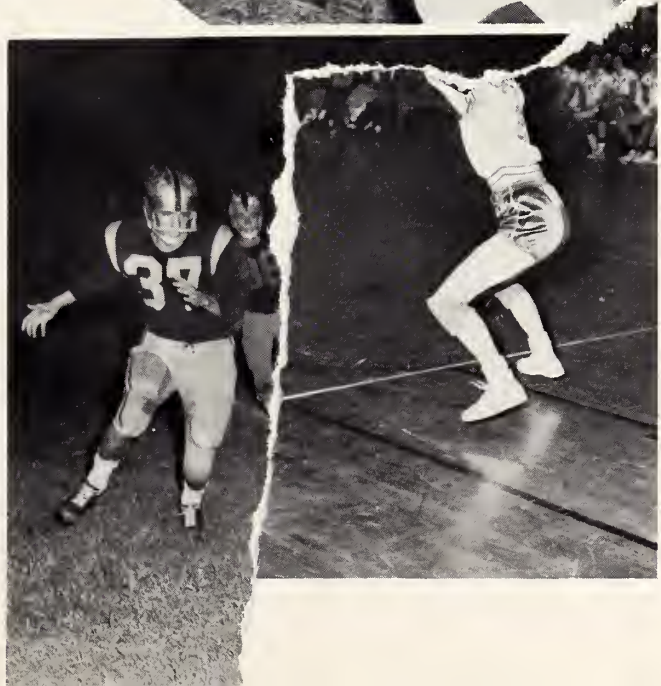

FOOTBALL

Don't let anyone tell you a referee doesn't have to hustle for a play like this!

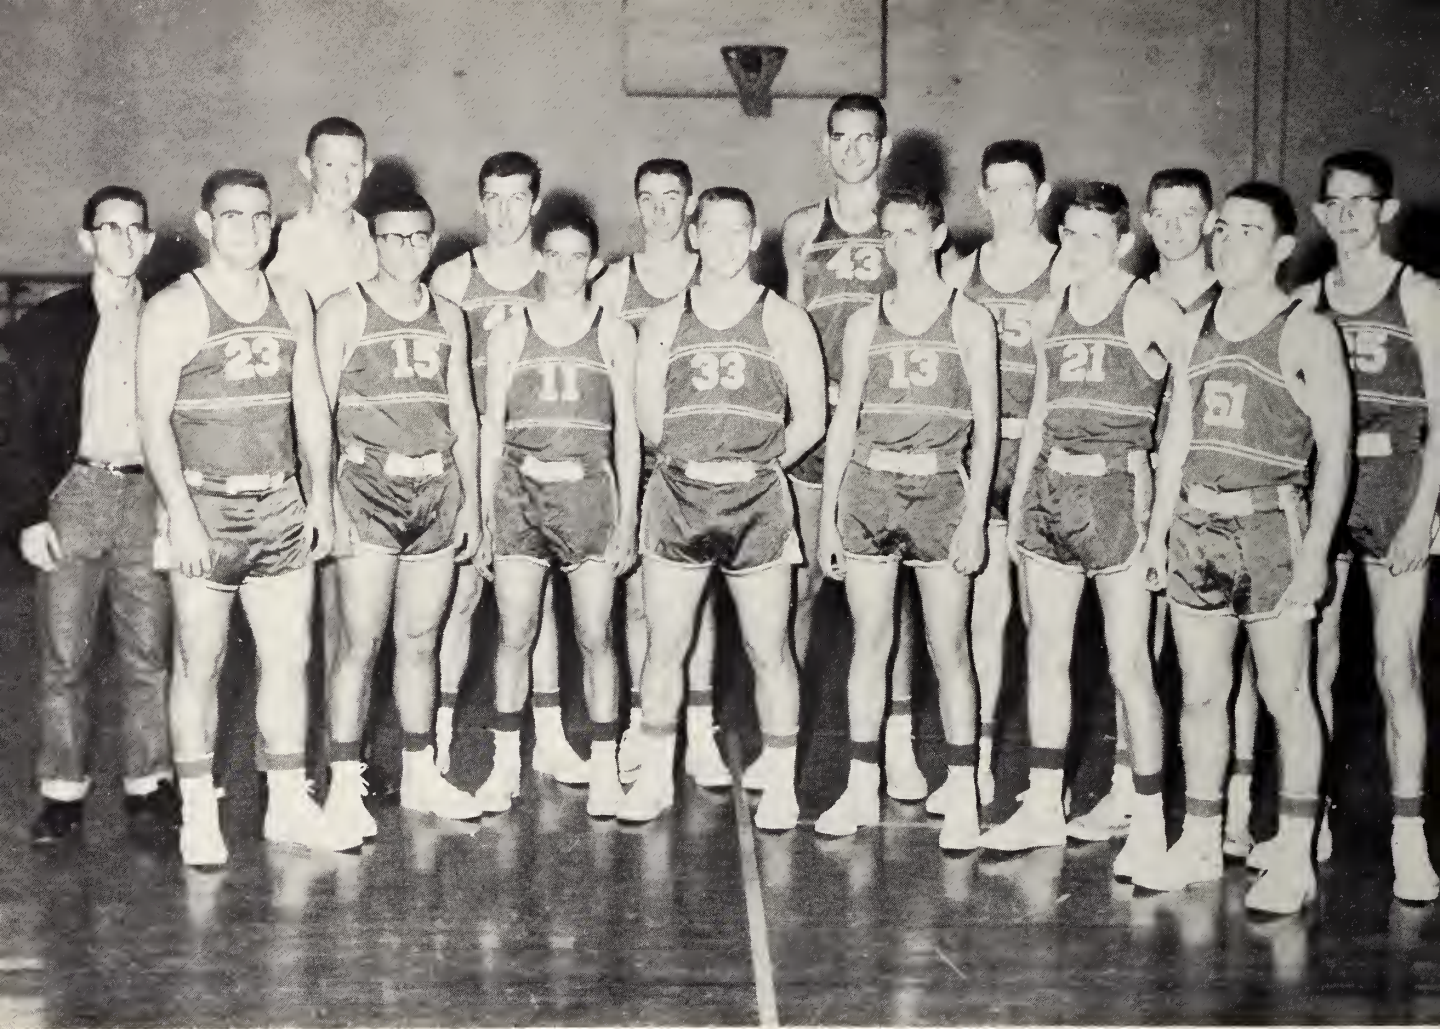

Hey, which one of you jokers missed his block?

Coach Jaynes' first L. H. S. squad posed clean and neat for the preceding page, but not so after each Friday night game! They might be a little dirtier, but underneath, they're still the same Bearcats, continuing to play in the best tradition of the game.

Towering figures, clad in blue and white, rush onto the basketball court, ready for a tense duel. The whistle blows; the game begins. The hours of hard and tedious practice now seem worthwhile. The spectators are caught up in the flashing speed as the game is played to its finish, win or lose.

The co-captains, Raymond Estes, Larry Greene, and Mike Braach, are shown the proper handling of the ball by Coach Hope.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

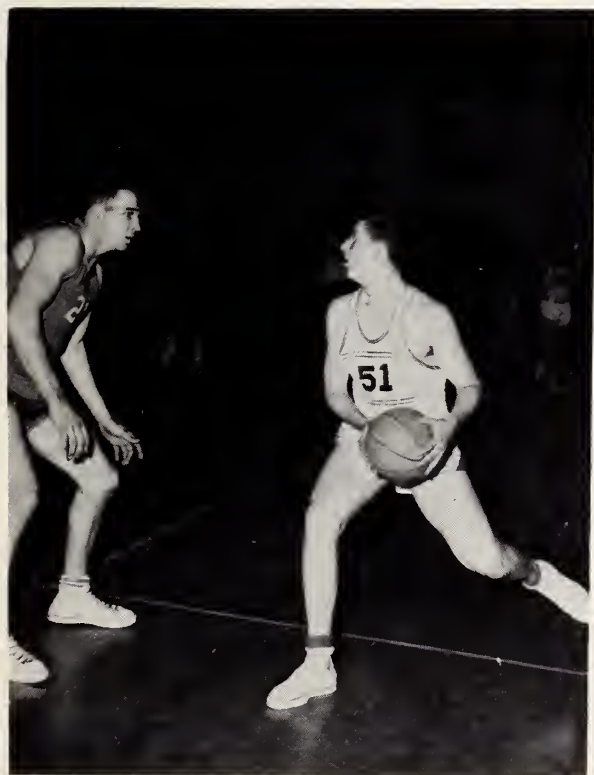

Greene makes the big effort to score that basket.

Boll! Boll! Who's got the ball?!

Church searches for a friendly face.

The "firstest" with the "mostest" grabs the rebound.

TRACK

Don't let Freddie Dean faal you; it's just a "frisbee."

Unlike other sports, track is one-man competition. Track gives the participant the most personal feeling of accomplishment. But while each is straining for his own victory, he is also striving for the team.

Let's see if I can fake him out!

Jim Clark looks a little apprehensive about the next pitch, doesn't he?

An easy out for Barry Melton is on the way.

Try . . . just try to hit this one.

With the coming of baseball season, the fielders and batters resume their duel. Pitcher and catcher plot against the lone batter; fielders guard their positions. But despite all efforts, the ball manages to slip through!

MARSHALS

Whenever there is a special event at our high school, we are assured that our guests will receive personal attention from our marshals. With their best foot forward they are always smiling and gracious.

CHEERLEADERS

Betty Templeman, Rebecca Beach, Evanna Hallifield, Sarah McGee, Martha Janes, Mary Sue Praffit, and Sheila Melton make up the Big L in Cheerleader.

Our cheerleaders dressed in blue and white, vivacious and cheering with all their might. Our school is with you all the way; show them, Bearcats, how well you play. Our hats are off to you, cheerleaders; so we all say thanks to you, for what you do.

JUNIOR SENIOR

In the space age of 1959, members of the junior class looked to celestial bodies for their theme in honoring the senior class last April at the unforgettable Junior-Senior. A gleaming night sky, a canopy of silver streamers, and a large fountain, which spouted billows of mist and sparkling streams of water, created a dreamy atmosphere for enchanted guests.

This takes talent!

At least it was unusual!

This may not be the fountain of youth, but it will restore happy memories for many long years.

"Thanks so much—we never could have done it without you."

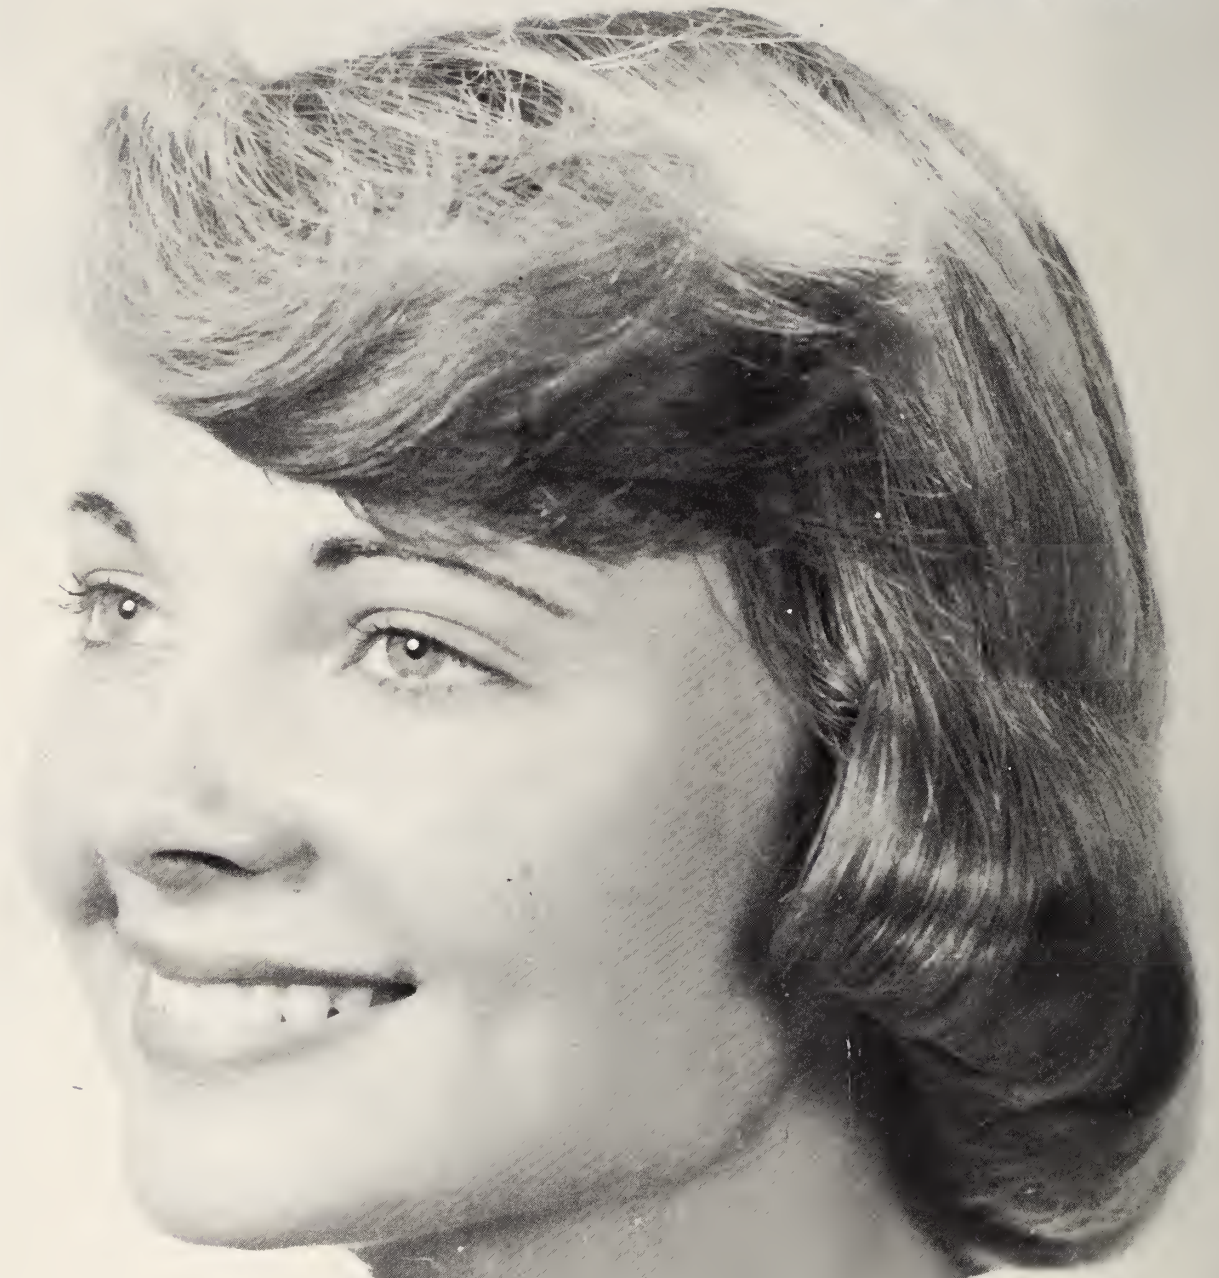

Something new has been added to Winstons!

HOMECOMING

Radiant in their swirling bouffant dresses, the cream of femininity at L. H. S. paraded for all to see at the peak of excitement during the homecoming activities. Coupled with the thrill of a hard-fought game, it was a night of suspense-filled grandeur.

With a cheer, the football players stream onto the field from the mouth of the Bearcat.

All together now—L . . . H . . . S.!

After a moment's wobbling, the crown settled down on the head of a very regal queen.

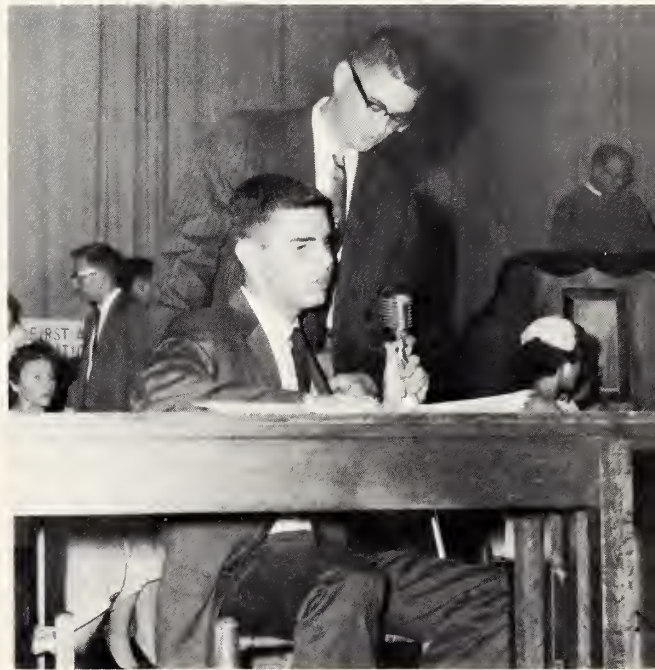

And all of the sponsors looked so sophisticated in the parade . . .

FEATURES OF 1959

The class of 1959, solemn in caps and gowns, marched forward to receive their rewards for twelve long years of labor as graduation was finally attained.

Spring brought student council elections, along with earnest speeches and enthusiastic campaigning.

The seniors relived fond memories and anticipated future plans on stage in a clever class day skit about a mack murder trial.

Don't worry—it was only iced tea!

Mrs. Cabb and Mrs. Jarratt primp for meeting the day's onslaught of students.

This is a study hall, where students read Mad magazines, write letters, and do all else except study.

APPRECIATION

As you turn the last few pages of your yearbook, we, the annual staff, would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude to you, merchants, faculty and student body, for your patronage and support. We hope we have been successful in capturing and preserving the many memories connected with your past year at L. H. S.

The BEARCAT Staff

"You and the night and the music."

Mr. Bob Lee presents the most treasured trophy of all to Freddie Dean Wilson for being the most valuable player.

UNFORGETTABLE

is the word for it ALL!

Dear Mrs. Jarratt,

I can't begin to tell you how much I as well as the rest of the gang have enjoyed English this year. It was such a relief to get away from that horrible grammar into literature. I think I would have absolutely given up if we had to have another year of picking out the participles! Now onto bigger and better things - college. Thank you ever so much for getting us more prepared - will need it!

Sincerely,

Kathy Jordan

Mrs. Jarratt,

I have sincerely enjoyed being in your English class this year. I have never before enjoyed the study of literature as I have this year. Best wishes and good luck to a wonderful teacher and person.

Tom Malbon

Mrs. Jarratt,
for Mandy + Thanks
for such an enjoyable and interesting English class. The up-coming seniors made you to look forward to
Best wishes,
Janice Armfield

Dear Mrs Jarratt

We've really enjoyed being in your English class this year. You're really a swell teacher.

Neil & John

Mrs. Jarratt,

I've really enjoyed being in your English class this year. If I had absorbed all you taught the class my way would be easy. Don't ever let up because, whether they admitt' it or not, the kids appreciate what you're doing for them.

Best wishes,
Gary Walker

Dear Mrs. Jarratt,

knowing you has been my pleasure. You are a great teacher in my estimation. I will always remember you as a friend. (al hope)

Jeel Drum

Mrs. Jarratt,

I can really say that I have enjoyed being in two of your classes this! I thank I have learned a lot from both of them.
In my estimation you are not only a fine teacher but also a fine person.

Charles McLean

Mrs. Jarratt,

I have really enjoyed
having you for my English teacher this year. Best wishes to a wonderful teacher.

Pat Hedges

Mrs. Jarratt

I can't say that
I have enjoyed
English, because I am not too good on the subject but you have made it very interesting, and you are the only English teacher that has ever showed interest in helping me. I have enjoyed having you as an English teacher and one of the finest persons
I know Steve

Mrs. Garratt,

It has been a pleasure being in your English class this year. I'll never be able to thank you enough for the many things that you have taught me. Best of luck in the years to come.

Judy Gragg

Mrs. Garratt,

I have enjoyed being in your English class this year, and I'm still so proud at the ease such a small woman as you handles such big seniors. Best of luck

Billie G

Mrs. Garratt,

I know that you have heard many times I've enjoyed having you as a teacher. I really have enjoyed being in sociology and English. You have done an outstanding job of teaching both subjects. As the result of being in your classes I feel better prepared to face the world after I leave L. H. S. You are a wonderful person and I know happiness will always be yours. Best of luck to a teacher I admire very much.

A stupid student,
Row Marie Walsh

Mrs. Garratt,

I have enjoyed being of your English students this past year. I want to thank you for all the help you have giving me this year. Best of luck in the years to come.

James Hartsoe

Dear Mrs Garratt,

I have sincerely enjoyed being in your two classes this year, and study half the years before this.

I think you are one of the sweetest and wisest teachers I have had. I want to thank you for your wonderful help and advice I have received from you.

May all happiness and the best of luck be yours forever.

Mrs. Garratt,

I've sincerely enjoyed this class this year. I know I've not done my best and I regret it. You have been the easiest teacher to understand & think I've had all through high school. Best wishes to a wonderful teacher.

Unison Holloway

Mrs Garratt,
I have enjoyed being in your study hall this year. I have never had a teacher more co-operative with students than you. I am looking forward to being in your English class next year.

Mrs. Garratt,

I can truthfully say that this has been the best year of my high-school life. I have thoroughly enjoyed knowing you and learning so much English that I have never known. May I thank you very much for reading my papers in class — you inspired me to work harder. You respect us and treat us like grown-ups more than any other teacher I have ever had. Thank you for being so nice to me! May all your good dreams come true!

Mary Setz

Mrs. Garratt,

I've enjoyed being in your study hall even if I have been gone most of the time. I think that you are a very good teacher and I am looking forward to being in some of your classes in the future.

Bob Lee

Mrs. Garratt,

It has been a pleasure being in your study hall this year. And I will be looking forward to having you for my English teacher my senior year.

Holly Pitzer

Mrs Jarratt,

Mrs. Jarratt,

You have been a great influence on me during the last two years. I appreciate all you have done for me

You are a good kid. Lots of luck to you in the future after I leave, I have enjoyed this year. (A ha).

Dear Mrs Jarratt
I'm sure, very sure, that I'll never forget this year! The whole trip, one school, the classes I had with you! We enjoyed our English, we felt the joy of literature, how to offer it. You are so kind, you don't know how to thank you. I always feel for you, even a little - for your kindness, for everything you've done for me. I miss you very much, and I feel for all my teachers, and I feel for you. I'll miss you very much too. I'll miss you very much too.
